2014 is a year of school renewal for St. Peter’s College.

With the assistance of the Catholic Educational Office in the Diocese of Sale we embark on a review of our vision and strategic plan which has guided us over the last 4 years from 2009-2013.

An essential part of the process will be to celebrate our successes and identifying the areas for improvement through consultation with all members of our community.

On the 10th of June I invite our parents to participate in our school renewal process through a Parents and friends forum. Lead by our school conveners Mr. Stephen Nash and Ms. Marjorie Canal this will be an opportunity for parents to contribute to the future vision of St Peter’s College.
