Guest Speaker: Angela Gargano Teacher Librarian and Head of Library.

Angela started her teaching career at Mornington High School and remained there until 2010 when she travelled overseas with her family to visit hers and her husbands extended family and countries of origin.

In 2011 Angela commenced her time at St Peters, with her goals as Head of Library to develop a library program and literature program, to enhance students research and information gathering skills and to ensure the library is a welcoming, functional and flexible learning space.

Heading into the 21st century it is still vitally important to develop literary skills as well as the ability to evaluate and assess the validity of information found on the internet.

Some programs she is working on are:
Readarama Roller Coaster- For years 7 and 8 rewarding students for 25 hours of reading.
Book Week 2011 – One world, many stories – St Peters college, 1000 stories.
Book Bonanza 2012 – Champions Read
National Year of Reading – Lunch time reading sessions
Book Club

We had a tour of the library where we discussed the encyclopaedia access on Moodle and further plans for development of the moodle page or other internet site. We saw the new functional, flexible furnishings in the library which allow the space to be arranged and rearranged easily to make best use of the space.

Treasurer’s Report:

Elli was not available to present a report.

Fundraising:

Discussed in General Business

General Business:

ENTERTAINMENT BOOKS

Sold out!!

PAVERS So far we have 22 orders we need more orders before we can go ahead with this.

WOOLWORTHS: There are three local options for sausage sizzles at Woolies, Centro, Cranbourne North and Langwarrin. There is some concern that Woolworths will not be as popular a sausage spot as Bunnings and whether or not it is worth the effort.

RITCHIES CARDS – Ritchies cards need to be resourced for the welcome pack.

Little shop of Horrors: We thanked April for organising the pizza lunch for the cast and crew.

YEAR 7 ORIENTATION: On Monday 3rd December we will hold a morning tea for parents as they drop children off for orientation. We will attempt to get one volunteer for P and F from each house. We will present a powerpoint presentation about what we do as P and F, and there will be a “fashion parade” for school uniform.

Closing Prayer:

Tim Hogan
