RMIT School Holiday Programs

Ready Set Design

Now in its sixth year, Ready Set Design is a series of three workshops for students in Year 11 and 12 where they can learn about careers and tertiary programs in design, develop their folio, and practice their interview and presentation skills.

Workshops are held in the April, June and September school holidays. We recommend that students attend all three sessions to get the most out Ready Set Design.

Registrations are now open for Workshop 1 (Design Bytes), which will be held on Monday 3 April. Registrations for Workshops 2 and 3 will open later in the year, and we will advise you when students can register for these (students who register for Workshop 1 will also receive a notification).

Study Skills 101

This workshop, held on Tuesday 4 April will offer current VCE students strategies to approach their exams and assessments with confidence. The session will cover the differences between studying at high school and university and how to deal with procrastination, as well as tips on writing essays under exam conditions.

To register their attendance, students must visit our Eventbrite page, select the session/s they wish to attend, and provide their details. Students aged under 18 years of age will also need to return a consent form signed by their parent or carer. More information about Ready Set Design and Study Skills 101 can be found on the individual event pages.

Please distribute the attached flyers to your senior students and relevant subject area teachers. The flyers can also be printed and displayed as posters in classrooms and/or student spaces.

Feel free to contact the SNAP team on the details below if you have any further questions about these opportunities.

A Day at Melbourne University

Do you have Year 12 students who wonder what it really be like to be a university of Melbourne student? If so, we invite them to sign up for A Day at Melbourne and find out for themselves!

Students will be able to sit in on a first year lecture, quiz our current students, go on a guided tour as well as check out the residential colleges. Students can choose their own adventure on the day, with activities and info available on the Melbourne Curriculum, scholarships, study abroad, Access Melbourne, clubs and societies, accommodation options and much more.

There's even a session just for parents, so they can learn what they need to do to support their children during the exciting times ahead.
